CHO-CHO COMING TO GIVE CHILDREN HEALTH RULES

Makes Small Folk Shrick With Laughter While Teaching Valuable Lessons.

WILL ARRIVE ON NOVEMBER 22

Idea Originated in New York by Child Health Organization Leaps Into Popularity-Wisdom's Words to Mirth's Tunes.

Cho-Cho is coming to Richmond on Saturday, November 22, for the benefit and entertainment of the big, little and middle-size children of Richmond. Cho-Cho is a real, sure 'nough circus clown, the kind of clown that the sight of recalls the joyous days when one was young and credulous and sat under a billowing sea of weatherstained canvas and shricked with delight at the funny antics of a comical figure in full trousers, a ridiculous coat, ornamented with bright red diamonds, and a big white ruff-a figure a face of chalky whiteness, painted with bold splotches of red and lines of black-the traditional clown. Cho-Cho comes to Richmond under the auspices of the Richmond liouse-wives' League, the members of which conspired together at a meeting at the Jefferson yesterday afternoon to give the children of Richmond the time of their young lives Saturday, two weeks' hence. Will Humanize Health Rules.

Cho-Cho's mission in Richmond is to humanize health rules"—to set words of wisdom to the tune of mirth or that the littlest child will remember the fundamental rules of health and happiness forever afterward.

ward. Cho-Cho's present program of con-Cho-Cho's present program of constructive education is along the lines of presenting in an attractive form the necessary rules of health began in New York City. The Child Health Organization conceived the idea of using a loved figure of childhood to inspire children with the desire to grow big and strong and healthy, and to tell them just how to do it.

A real live clown was procured through a dramatic agency, christened with the initials of the organization. Cho, and drilled in a series of health talks to public school children of New York. As was to be expected, the children halled the merry Cho-Cho with joy and they swallowed his pills of advice readily, with their sugar-coating of jest and merciment.

A member of the Richmond Housewives' Loague was present at one of Cho-Cho's performances and her pleasure in the entertainment provided by the clows was as great as that of the thousands of children who filled the auditorium where he was giving his performance. structive education is along the lines

The drive begun by the Richmond Housewives' League for the standardization of the one pound louf of bread in Richmond and that every loaf sold shall be wrapped at the bakeries continues to receive the official indorsement of Richmond organizations, before whom Mrs. J. In line with Mrs. Durham's investi-ation of the matter of the wide vari-ace in the weight of loaves of bread old by bakeries here, an ordinance will introduced at the next meeting of City Council looking toward standardization in weight and the wrapping of loaves of bread at the bakeries. The ordinance was framed by the president of the Renters' and Consumers' League, McG. Finnegan.
